High School Debate—Going to Los Angeles—Prize Givers—Bird Talk—Grand Dames in Town—Interesting Personals.

What promises to be an interesting entertainment will be given at the High School to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock for the benefit of the music fund. There will be a debate between teams from the Junior and Sophomore classes on the question: "Resolved, That further restriction of immigration to the United States is desirable." Those who speak in the affirmative for the Juniors are Louise Dufour, Clari-bell Lewis and Herbert Fryer. The Sophomores who will maintain the negative are Carolyn Bullock, Jack Bennett and Mabel Tooley. After this question has been thrashed out, there will be spelling bee between the Juniors and ten Sophomores. There will also be a musical program.

Five big posters announcing coming events now adorn the walls of the post office lobby. Crowds of people daily throng to inspect the grand make up their minds what to attend.

The Rebekah Lodge is to give a whist at the Town hall on the 15th inst. with score cards at the door.

After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Lovell will occupy a portion of the William A. Stagg house on Harris street.

Mr. James Sexton has just received a letter from his brother in law, Mr. Fitzgerald, who is living at Los Angeles, California. He writes that for three days in succession the mercury stood at 94 in the shade, and that the weather was the hottest known in that part of the world for 20 years. On the 3rd of July Mr. Sexton will go to Los Angeles with his daughter, Rose, with the Elks' excursion, and before returning will visit San Francisco and the exhibition at Seattle. He expects to be gone several weeks, and while away his son, Vincent Sexton, will have charge of the stone yards on Stratford avenue.

Our Main street is being treated to a top dressing of crushed trap rock, which is being packed down by a heavy steam roller.

Mr. William Rogers of Philadelphia is visiting in town.

Mrs. James P. Brayton, State Regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution for the state of Michigan, and Miss Mary Sexton, who have been making their annual visit to this place, returned home today. Mrs. Birdsey Blakeman, widow of the gentleman who gave us our public library, is the guest of Mrs. Preston Hodges.

The little Judson boy, ill with pneumonia, was yesterday holding his own against the attack of the disease.

It is reported that a number of graves in Union cemetery have recently been robbed of the flowers placed upon and around them by loving hands. The vandals take the pots and all.

The annual memorial services of the Chinese will be held on the 30th inst.

The local branch of the A. O. H. has recently initiated 25 new members.

The lost trains from this town are the east bound 9:04 a. m., and the west bound 12:28 p. m.

The following individuals gave prizes for the St. James' whist: Mrs. Daniel Russell, a picture; Miss Barrows, a picture; Mrs. Dalton, a landscape; Mrs. Cornelius Aherm, a tea-pot; Mrs. Joseph Allard, glass dishes; Mrs. Charles Booth, a center piece; Mrs. Bowen, a glass dish; Mrs. Chas. Graham, a platter; and Mrs. John McQuillan, a neck tie.

It is said the circus is coming on July 25, but its tents will not be pitched in this town. There is always a circus somewhere.

The bird talk last night at the library proved to be both amusing and instructive. Considering the weather Mr. Avis had a fair audience. The habits and characteristics of our song birds were illustrated by many stereoscopic views. Mr. Avis is a good whistler and as announced in his program is a capital mimic of bird songs. Special attention was paid to native birds. Of these Mr. Avis thinks some species are becoming extinct, owing to their slaughter by thoughtless people. The excuse is often made that birds are killed to get specimens of their skins for museums of natural history. This is the Roosevelt bird very cleverly, but the best way to hear bird songs is to go to the woods, and listen for one's self.

The weather is so unsettled there will be no more lawn food sales for the present. After all the best place to sell food is in the house.

Miss Catherine Wood has been assisting in the library. It is quite possible Miss Mitchell will also assist, since her school in New York has closed for the season.

A lot of grand dames have recently been in town, including Ida Davis, grand matron of Collinsville; Kate A. S. Chase of Bristol, associate grand matron; Maize B. Clark of Higginham grand conductress; Bertha Schussler of Bridgport, associate grand matron; Fanny Gardner of Milford, grand Martha and Bertha Gallop of Moosup, grand chaplain. They had a good time while in our grand town.

Recent visitors in town include Mr. and Mrs. Yarrington, former residents of Milford; Mrs. Edward Beers; Mr. William Jacobs of Waterbury; Mrs. Griswold of the same city; Mrs. Louise Baldwin and Mrs. Addie Whitcomb of Milford; Mrs. Edward Beers; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Terry; and Benjamin Douglas of New Haven.

Mr. Geo. A. Porter will soon build a new house on Warwick street. A number of little fellows in town have the scarlet fever.

Two men, Will Lewis, and Chris Peterson, were up before Judge Peck this morning, both charged with intoxication and the former with non-support of his wife. Mr. Lewis was allowed to have his case continued for one month on promise of keeping sober, and Chris Peterson was fined $1 and costs, and allowed a day in which to raise the money.

FATTED CALF TO LORD PELL'S HEIRS

New Rochelle, N. Y., June 11.—After a lapse of more than 100 years, arrangements have been completed here for the presentation by the people of the city of a fatted calf to the heirs of Lord Pell, the original owner of the land on which New Rochelle stands.

The presentation will take place at the Bronx Manor House, in Bronxville, on Thursday, June 24, which is the residence of George H. Pell. The Mayor, Common Council, and other citizens of New Rochelle and the North Side Board of Trade, which has arranged a joint through Westchester on that day, will witness the presentation of the calf.

When Lord Pell sold the 6,000 acres now comprising the city of New Rochelle to the Huguenots in 1688 for about $800 he thought that he had made such a good bargain that he threw in another 100 acres for a church on condition that the Huguenots would "every year thereafter present to him, or his heirs, or assigns, for ever, on St. John's Day, one fatted calf." The Huguenots kept their word for many years, but about a century ago allowed the custom to lapse.

Recently, at the unveiling of a Huguenot monument at Hudson Park, Mr. Pell, who is a direct descendant of Lord Pell, met Mayor Raymond and reminded him that the fatted calf had not been given for many years and that this year he would make a demand on New Rochelle for the calf.

The Mayor laid the matter before the Aldermen, who decided to buy a calf and present it to Mr. Pell with appropriate ceremonies.

NEW COAL ROAD MAY AFFECT NEW HAVEN'S TRAFFIC

London, June 11.—F. F. Searing of New York, President of the Delaware and Eastern Railway Company, which is building a new line from the anthracite coal region of Pennsylvania to Schenectady, where it could make a connection with the Boston & Maine system, has been in Europe for several weeks in connection with floating bonds for the enterprise to the amount of $4,000,000. Mr. Searing has just returned to London from Amsterdam. At the Savoy, where he is staying, he stated that he had met with good success in negotiating the loan.

The new line is to be a direct rival of the Delaware & Hudson, and is also likely to affect largely the New Haven Railroad's coal traffic, despite the control of the Boston & Maine by New Haven interests.

It is expected to establish a current of passenger traffic between Philadelphia and the South and the Catskill region, and eventually the St. Lawrence Valley and Montreal through New York Central connections. This phase of the enterprise, however, for particular reasons, Mr. Searing does not desire to emphasize at present. He declined to say what exact relationship the Boston & Maine and the New York Central bear to the company.

BRYAN CANDIDATE FOR U. S. SENATE

Omaha, June 11.—William J. Bryan will be a candidate for the United States Senate to succeed Elmer J. Burkett, whose term expires in March, 1911.

This announcement was made by Richard L. Metcalf, editor of the Commencer, and it is considered official. Bryan will make the race under the direct primary law, modeled after the Oregon law. Nebraska will elect a Legislature in November, 1910, and the primary will be in September of that year.

MARK TWAIN GIVES ADVICE TO SCHOOL GIRLS

Baltimore, June 11.—Mark Twain was the chief speaker at the commencement exercises yesterday of St. Timothy's School, Catonsville.

The first speaker was Edward F. Martin of New York, who gave some sage advice to the graduates.

Following Mr. Martin Mr. Clemens took the platform. He smilingly said that since his predecessor had advised the students as to what they should do he was left for him only to tell what they shouldn't do.

"There are three things, young ladies, that I want to advise you not to do."

"1. Do not smoke—that is, don't smoke to excess. I am 73½ years old and I have smoked for seventy-three years of that time."

"2. Don't drink—that is, don't drink to excess."

"3. Don't marry—I mean to excess."

After the laughter had subsided Mr. Clemens cautioned the graduates above all to be strictly honest.

"Honesty is the best policy," he said. "That is an old proverb, but you don't want to forget it in your journey through life."

Then Mr. Clemens illustrated his advice with a story about the time when he and a partner were stranded in New York. They had started up a newspaper syndicate, which was not very successful, and one afternoon found them badly in need of a few dollars to meet pressing debts. That evening Mr. Clemens found a handsome dog in the lobby of a hotel and immediately sold it to a man for $3. Later on he ran across the owner of the dog, who offered him $2 if he could locate his lost pet. Mr. Clemens accepted the $3, handed up the man to whom he had sold the dog, gave him back his $3 and returned the dog to its rightful owner.

WATERS AGAIN TEARING THROUGH CANAL LOCKS.

(Special from United Press.)
Sault Ste Marie, Mich., June 11.—The temporary dam, stemming the torrent in the wrecked locks of the Canadian canal here, failed in the crucial test after it had been apparently successful and to-day the waters are again tearing through the locks. The last beam of the dam could not be locked into place owing to the increased pressure of the flood.

A gang of men to-day started to pull it out of the slides and repair the damage done to the framework. The twisting and bending of the last wicket did considerable damage to the framework of the emergency dam and

It is feared now that the force of the stream will have to be curbed by making a dam of iron above.

MASSACRES CONTINUE IN ASIA-MINOR.

(Special from United Press.)
Constantinople, June 11.—The Russian Ambassador to-day sent a protest to his government against the continuation of the massacre of Christians in Asia-Minor. He declares that Russian agents sent to Asia-Minor have reported that 100 Christians have been killed within the last few days near Alexandretta, and murders have been committed almost under the eyes of the commission sent to investigate the recent uprising. Grand Vizier Hilmi Pasha has given fresh pledges that the killing of the Armenians will be stopped immediately but the Russian Ambassador is skeptical of the Grand Vizier's ability to carry out his pledges. The Mohammedan population is still inflamed and whenever the vigilance of the small body of troops that Turkey sent to the affected district is relaxed fresh outbreaks occur.
